MICRO-FOLIES

European Royal Residences Collection

12th October 2018

Paris

Inspired by the "Folies" designed by architect Bernard Tschumi in the Parc de La Villette, The Micro-Folies are a tool for cultural democratization.

Bringing together 500 artworks of twelve French national institutions and museums, this virtual art gallery is a unique cultural offer for both young and older visitors.

Thought the Palace of Versailles, involved in this project, this partnership is now opened to members of the Network of European Royal Residences in order to create a Gallery of European Masterpieces accessible for the visitors of the Micro-Folie.

AIMS of the INITIATIVE /

- Improve cultural access in Europe
- Show the beauty of the European Royal Residences all over the world and beyond your national borders
- Provide new tools about history and art for education activities
